Van DiCarlo extremely disappointed in withdrawal of support for HCR 2036

The benefits of public opinion on an issue as important as sanctuary cities cannot be overstated. HCR 2036 would have sent the issue of prohibiting sanctuary cities to the voters so they may provide direct public input for this important issue.

A sanctuary jurisdiction designation carries with it the intent of withholding local, county, or state law enforcement cooperation from federal law enforcement agencies regarding immigration enforcement. It creates a hazardous environment for Arizona families and defies the conservative principle of supporting the rule of law in all matters.

The decision to withdraw support for HCR 2036 is deeply disappointing. Sovereignty, by definition, is self-governance, and because the voting public will not have the ability to weigh in on this very important issue, the sovereignty of Arizona citizens has been negatively impacted.

Van DiCarlo is a conservative candidate for the Arizona Senate in the 22nd Legislative District.
