Van DiCarlo pledges support for upholding the rule of immigration law

The negative financial and social impact of individuals illegally residing in the United States is irrefutable. Law enforcement agencies across the country have an obligation to cooperate with Federal agencies in the enforcement of our nation's immigration law. I believe penalties should be levied against any agency who intentionally and knowingly refuses to cooperate with federal authorities particularly regarding federal detainees. I believe in strong legislation that will hold sanctuary jurisdictions accountable for their anti-government policies by imposing penalties through civil actions by the state and victims.

Van DiCarlo is a conservative candidate for the Arizona Senate in the 22nd Legislative District.
